Treating kids isn't part of what we do. It's ALL we do.

Nemours started with a promise. A promise to care for each child as we would our own. In 2012, we opened our doors in Orlando because families wanted a children's hospital closer to home that has everything they need, all in one place.

Our state-of-the-art children's hospital in Orlando's Lake Nona Medical City is the home to a team of extraordinary individuals who are united in a cause to prevent and treat even the most disabling childhood medical conditions.

Your child. Our promise.
